“God Is Holy”

1. What about God’s holiness?

Isa 6:1-5, Heb 12:14, Ex 15:11, 1 John 1:5-7

2. What about our holiness?

Heb 12:14, Eph 4:17-24, 1 Pet 1:14-16, Heb 13:4, Pr 8:13, 2 Cor 6:14-7:1

Personal Application:

- 1) Why is 'holiness' often such a controversial subject among Christians?
- 2) Why is God so strongly against sin?
- 3) What does Isa 6:1-5 say about God's holiness?
- 4) How would you define the holiness of God?
- 5) How is the holiness of God demonstrated or revealed in scripture?
- 6) What are the two major implications of the statement "God is Holy"?
- 7) Explain why living a holy life is so important to God?
- 8) How is it beneficial to us to live holy lives?
- 9) What does living a holy life have to do with who we are in Christ?
- 10) What are some ways that people measure holiness that are not really accurate definitions of holiness?
- 11) Why do people measure holiness by external things like "what you wear" or "what you eat"?
- 12) What specific steps do we need to take to "be holy" as God is holy?
- 13) What are some sound scriptural way to measure holiness in our lives?
- 14) How do we "live holy lives" as we face the practical challenges of everyday life?
- 15) Since we are finite human beings, how can we be holy?
- 16) How can we avoid the dangers that happen when one refuses to follow after the example of Jesus Christ?
- 17) What are three practical characteristics of personal holiness that should be seen in us?
 - b) _____ .
 - c) _____ .
