“God is loving”

1. What we wonder about God’s love

2. What God tells us about God’s love

3. What we can do about God’s love

Personal Application:

- Which (if any) is most true of you:
 - God couldn't love me because of what I've done
 - God couldn't love me because of what others have done to me
 - God couldn't love me because I'm not good enough to be loved
 - God couldn't love me because He isn't loving.

- If you know someone loves you, does that help you explain what they do? Does it help you trust them when you can't explain?
- Why does God tell us that He loved us first?
- How long is everlasting? What does that mean about God's love?
- Can a parent be considered loving without ever punishing/correcting a child?
- Does a child always understand how much a parent loves?
- How does an understanding of God's love shape how you talk with him?
- How does an understanding of God's love shape how we relate to each other?
- How does an understanding of God's love shape how we look at ourselves?
- How many different ways does God tell us that He loves us?
